

Title / Duration / Visa

Al Amana Center, Oman Architectural Volunteer 2-4 months

Felm tutor / Partner tutor:

Rev. Aaro Rytkönen, Executive Director, Al Amana Centre

Partner / Location

Al Amana Centre is an interfaith dialogue centre based on almost 130 years of mission history of the Reformed Church in America in the Sultanate of Oman. FELM has been working in collaboration with the mission in the 1980s and now again since 2017. Al Amana Centre builds trust between people of faith in order to work for peace and reconciliation. Al Amana Centre is located in Muscat, the Sultanate of Oman, in Arabian Peninsula.

Objective and duties of Volunteer

- Support Executive Director and Director of Strategic Planning in exploring possibilities to develop Al Amana Centre existing property further
- Provide understanding how Al Amana Centre physical campus can be in best use for the safe space workshops, retreat and study programs
- Work with Al Amana Centre staff to take care of the garden and give advice how the garden should look like
- Provide proposals how to set up kitchen facilities, living room and common space as well as office facilities and private bed rooms as part of the Centre.
- Communicate, together with Al Amana Executive Director and other relevant parties, about the work of Al Amana Centre

Short description of the tasks

Al Amana Centre has a campus which has been built in 1950s to serve first as a home for mission doctors. Later on, it has been turned into the office as well as venue which is hosting workshops, study programs and retreats. There is also a garden as well as a separate chapel on the opposite side of the road. Al Amana Centre also wants to provide library facilities for students as well as quest house style accommodation for the groups who attend Al Amana program. The main purpose for the volunteer is to provide expertise and skills for the Al Amana leadership to develop the property so that it can better serve the aims and objectives of the center. This is a unique opportunity to bring ideas to a renewing mission of the unique organization which has a longstanding position in the country. The position is onsite only and pending an improved COVID-19 situation in the Sultanate of Oman.
